HEAD SOMMELIER
Joshua Turo

Welcome to the Yono's wine program. It is our goal to present you with a collection of fine wines from all major wine producing regions of the world. We pride ourselves on collecting boutique and small production wines from family owned & operated wineries. This wine list was created with our cuisine in mind and is intended not only to complement it, but to enhance your entire dining experience. If you find that you have any questions or are unfamiliar with any of the wines, our Sommelier team would be glad to assist you.

We take the utmost pride in our wines, by storing them in a temperature & humidity controlled environment, and serving them exclusively in Riedel® stemware imported from Austria. We aim to serve our wines at optimal temperature which is 43° for Champagne & sparkling wine, 52° for white wines and 62° for reds. If you would prefer us to chill your wine additionally, we would be happy to do so.

We are honored & feel trusted to offer service for wines from your cellar for thirty dollars with a limit of 2 bottles, please. For wine service on magnums, sixty dollars with a limit of one bottle, please.

SPECIAL CLUB

In 1971 a group of twelve growers started an organization called Club de Viticultures Champenois, to promote the concept of terroir and estate bottled, or grower Champagne in France and abroad.

In 1999 the group changed their name to Club Trésors de Champagne, but the mission and philosophy has not changed. Today, the group consists of 28 growers, including three of the original members: Pierre Gimonet, Gaston Chiquet & Paul Bara.

In addition to promoting the individuality of grower produced wines, this association allowed producers to market their wines together, through a special bottling of their top wine. The Tête de Cuvee or the Prestige Cuvée of each grower is peer reviewed. If the wine passes muster, it is bottled in a specifically designed, distinctive, bottle for the Club. Club growers made it easy to identify the Spécial Club bottling for consumers by using the same unusually shaped bottle for their top wine. In 1985 the Club changed the shape of the bottle to the one that is used today which is based on an 18th century design. The production of the Spécial Club bottle is regulated and trade-marked; only Club members may purchase these bottles from a glass supplier and they may only be used for Spécial Club wine, once it has passed several rigorous blind tastings.

SOMMELIER VINTNERS

Sommeliers have been a part of society since the days when their tasks were to sample the wines before royalty to ensure that they were fit for them to drink. Over the last few hundred years, sommeliers have become as integral to the fine dining experience as chefs, ensuring that guests receive the perfect wines to accompany & enhance their food. Below, are a few current & former sommeliers who have now turned their attention and skills to winemaking, creating wines that have a food first approach. These wines are made with balance and restraint and are wholeheartedly made with the intention of magnifying the joy of the dining experience.

Greg Harrington, MS, founded Walla Walla Valley’s Gramercy Cellars in 2005. Prior to that, Harrington was the wine director for Stephen Hansen’s BR Guest restaurants, Emeril Lagasse & Wolfgang Puck managing as many as 15 wine programs at a time.

Rajat Parr has been the wine director for Chef Michael Mina’s 15 restaurants since 2003. He also owns RN74 restaurants along with Michael Mina in San Francisco & Seattle. He founded Sandhi wines in 2010 and focuses on making wines in the Santa Rita Hills area of Santa Barbara County.

12012	2016	PINOT NOIR ~ Domaine de la Cote, “Blooms Field”, Santa Rita Hills	130

Bobby Stuckey, MS In 2004, Stuckey earned the Master Sommelier Diploma from the Court of Master Sommeliers. This diploma is considered by many to be the ultimate professional credential in the wine and spirits services industry. In 2008, Stuckey was nominated by the James Beard Foundation as Outstanding Wine and Spirits Professional. In 2010, 2011 and 2012, Frasca Food and Wine was nominated for Outstanding Wine Service, winning the prestigious award in 2013. These distinctions notwithstanding, Stuckey walks the dining room nightly, enthusiastically dispensing advice, recommendations, and sharing his passion for wine with Frasca guests

Marie Vayron Ponsonnot grew up on her family’s vineyard Chateau Bourgneuf in Pomerol France. Her father and Her father and sister, Xavier and Frédérique Vayron, still run the winery and make a classic Pomerol wine—vibrant and balanced, from soils of blue clay with traces of oxidized iron. Marie’s Pomerol origins, combined with a newfound love of California, inspired her to create a Merlot from Napa terroir. Marie worked as a sommelier at Aldo Sohm Wine Bar before moving on to it’s sister restaurant Le Bernardin, where she works today.

Thomas Pastuszak, Born & bred in New York, Thomas studied neurobiology and classical piano at Cornell University, and all the while worked in restaurants to pay-off his student loans. In January 2011, Thomas diverted from his path toward a medical career, and took on the role of Wine Director at Chef Tom Colicchio's restaurant Colicchio & Sons in New York City, and would soon thereafter join Chef Daniel Humm and the team behind the world-renowned Eleven Madison Park to create The NoMad in Spring 2012. He opened The NoMad as its Wine Director & helped it achieve its 3-Star New York Times rating within a few months of its opening. Thomas was chosen as one of the Best New Sommeliers of 2012 by Wine & Spirits Magazine, recognized as one of Forbes' 30 Under 30 in 2013, and was most recently named one of Food & Wine's Sommeliers of the Year of 2015. Most recently, Thomas has gotten into the world of winemaking, and has launched two exciting new wine labels: Terrassen in 2013, and Empire Estate in 2014, both with a focus on New York's exciting upstate wine region, the Finger Lakes

André Hueston Mack While still in Texas, Mack was awarded the prestigious title of Best Young Sommelier in America by the highly regarded Chaine des Rotisseurs. This recognition led to a job as sommelier at Thomas Keller's world-renowned French Laundry in Yountville, California. Mack went on to accept the position of Head Sommelier at Keller's equally famed Per Se in New York City, where he managed a 1500-selection award-winning wine list and consulted regularly with Chef Keller on menu and pairing development. Winemaking had always been a dream of his and came to fruition in 2007 when he founded Mouton Noir Wines. Throughout his career, Mack has forged special relationships with star growers and winemakers from Oregon and it is with this luminary group that he is currently making his most exciting wines. Mouton Noir wines are served at the best restaurants across the United States. He recently began curating wines for Club W, a wine club for a new generation of drinkers, to continue his mission of making wine more accessible.

The Pinot Noir is a minx of a vine. Indubitably feminine alas, if not exactly female, this is an exasperating variety for growers, winemakers and wine drinkers alike. It leads us a terrible dance, tantalizing with an occasional glimpse of the riches in store for those who persevere, yet obstinately refusing to be tamed. -Jancis Robinson, "Vines, Grapes & Wine"

WE ARE PROUD TO OFFER YOU EVERY VINTAGE EVER MADE OF CONTINUUM.

THE NEWEST PROJECT FROM THE MONDAVI FAMILY...

Continuum celebrates the ongoing legacy of the Mondavi's proud history in Napa Valley. It represents a new beginning, and reaffirms their longstanding commitment to winemaking excellence. . .

Wine is an artistic expression of man's harmony with nature. Production practices at Continuum honor and support the vineyards through balancing the essence of classic techniques with modern day innovations. Their goal is to craft balanced wines with power, finesse and elegance – wines that are expressions of the land, the people and the vintage. . . Continuum carries forward the belief that wine is integral to enhancing the meal and the celebration of the good life.

Continuum is yet another page in the Mondavi family legacy, a '5th beginning'. Founded in 2005, it is a partnership between Robert, Marcia and Tim Mondavi families. It is a rededication and refinement of the family's longstanding commitment to excellence in winemaking. Continuum's goal is to produce a single wine that is recognized among the finest in the world

The partners in Continuum represent three generations. At the helm is Tim Mondavi who led the winegrowing team at Robert Mondavi Winery for 30 years. He is joined in guiding the vision and direction by his sister Marcia, his father Robert and Robert's wife Margrit. Their combined passion and creativity are the primary inspiration for this important new beginning. Carissa Mondavi is the first of the third generation to join the winery

The Continuum partnership is more than just the ongoing legacy of the Mondavi family. It is a renewed commitment to the innovation, excellence, and artistic expression in grape growing and winemaking. The grapes for both the 2005 and 2006 vintages come from vineyards in the Oakville appellation, cultivated by the Mondavi family for decades. The wines are raised with respectful and time honored techniques, acquired over four generations and 85 years of experience. The grapes are hand harvested into small lug-boxes, hand-sorted and fed by gravity into small Oak Tanks for fermentation.

The wines are aged in 100% new French Oak barrels and bottled unfiltered and unfiltered.
